

ART TOUR: The Work of Joel Woodard

Karen Schwager, Laguna Beach artist and AAUW branch member, has organized a visit to SOKA University to view an intriguing exhibit of the work of Joel Woodard, SoCal artist and Director of Operations at the Laguna Art Museum. Participants on the tour will view his art first, then meet up with Joel to discuss it.

Joel Woodard, Chasing Infinity (or the Mis-Evolution of the Digital Primitive), Founders Hall Art Gallery, Soka University; Photo credit Tony Pinto.

Monday December 9, 2019, 2 pm
Founders Hall
Soka University of America
1 University Drive
Aliso Viejo, CA. 92656
RSVP REQUIRED to provide headcount to Soka.

Feel free to bring other interested parties.
Please carpool where possible.

Click here to RSVP to Karen Schwager

For more information about this exhibit, please click to read each review:

Voice of OC: Two O.C.-based artists, Gregory Gallardo and Joel Woodard, shine at Founders Hall Art Gallery at Soka University.

art and cake: Woodard has created an original and striking oeuvre.

OC Register: Woodard's paintings reveal a convergence of graphic shapes, patterns, symbols, gestural abstraction and an exploration of evolution and the primitive.

Visit our website

Follow Us On Social Media!

