

A favorite program has gone virtual! AAUW-LB's Annual Art Salon will be on Zoom this year, so you can enjoy it from the comfort of your own home! The salon will feature three young artists from the Laguna College of Art and Design (LCAD).

Come explore the work of these artists and hear about their creative journeys. Don't miss this very special opportunity to ask and learn about their process, technique, struggles and successes.

Sara Vonogas is an illustrator based in Southern California. She graduated from LCAD in 2020 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Entertainment Design. Her interest is in approaching fantasy illustration in a sculptural, natural and approachable manner, with a focus on character and costume design. When not making art, she is usually out soaking up inspiration from nature and playing fantasy role-playing games.

<https://www.saravonogas.com>

Melissa Mallory is a 2019 NCCWSL scholarship winner. Drawing from her identity as an Iranian-American woman, Melissa showcases Iranian women, as she strives to display and express some of the cultural and social issues that pertain to being of Iranian descent. Melissa works mainly in charcoal but she also paints in oil.

<http://mmallory.faso.com>

Jennifer Schmidt is a 2020 Returning Woman scholarship recipient and is featured on our recent College Scholarship Appeal video (<https://youtu.be/-vTPf2mM9Eg>). She will graduate in 2021 with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with a minor in illustration. She works in oil and in charcoal. "I take a simple object that is a part of my life and tweak it or paint it in a way to try and show the beauty and meaning of how I see it."

<http://jenniferaddams.com/>

